Introducing ...

Serendipity Solutions

Let Serendipity Solutions be your development department for a fraction of the cost of hiring part-time staff person. Our professional grant writers will partner with your staff and volunteers to research, draft, and submit proposals to local, regional, state, and nation funders.

Our short-term contracts and all inclusive fees make it affordable for organizations regardless of budget!

Typical Serendipity Solutions contracts range 3-6 months at incredibly low fees! We will be happy to send you a sample agreement for your review and consideration upon request.

Serendipity Solutions LLC also offers ½ day workshops in Grant Writing to appeal to staff and volunteers responsible for raising funds regardless of experience.

Grant Writers are Nuts! (Grant-writing 101) is an interactive, basic course designed to take the fear out of drafting proposals. Participants have the opportunity to develop a grant outline and to look at grant applications from a reviewer's perspective.

Advanced Grant Writing is a ½ day workshop for experienced fund raising professionals who convene to draft a state or national grant proposal that can benefit several partnering organizations and your community at large.
